Re: Spin Master Ltd., et al. v. 13385184960@163.com, et al.
Civil Case No. 18-cv-10524 (LGS)
Request for Extension of Time

Dear Judge Fox,

We represent Plaintiffs Spin Master Ltd. and Spin Master, Inc. ("Plaintiffs") in the above-referenced action.[1] On April 17, 2019, the Court ordered Plaintiffs to prepare and file with the Court, proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law, accompanied by supporting affidavits and exhibits, setting forth proof of their damages ("Inquest Papers"). (Dkt. 58.) Plaintiffs now respectfully request a 14-day extension of time to file their Inquest Papers until May 22, 2019. This is Plaintiffs' first request for an extension of time to file their Inquest Papers. Additional time is necessary to permit the orderly and comprehensive analysis of the approximately 82 Defendants against which Plaintiffs seek default judgment and their individual liabilities. The brief additional time requested will reduce the effort required by the Court to consider Plaintiffs' Inquest Papers. Since this is part of an application for default judgement, it is not possible to consult with opposing counsel regarding the instant request.

We thank the Court for its time and attention to this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

EPSTEIN DRANGEL LLP
