On this day, the Court considered Plaintiffs’ ex parte application for the following: 1) a temporary restraining order; 2) an order restraining Defendants’ Merchant Storefronts and Defendants’ Assets with the Financial Institutions; 3) an order to show cause why a preliminary injunction should not issue; 4) an order authorizing bifurcated and alternative service and 5) an order authorizing expedited discovery against Defendants, Third Party Service Providers and Financial Institutions in light of Defendants’ intentional and willful offerings for sale and/or sales of Counterfeit Products.¹ A complete list of Defendants is attached hereto as Schedule A, which also includes links to Defendants’ Merchant Storefronts and Infringing Listings. Having reviewed the Application, Declarations of Fei Lin and Michael Turitto, along with exhibits attached thereto and other evidence submitted in support thereof, the Court makes the following findings of fact and conclusions of law:

PRELIMINARY FACTUAL FINDINGS & CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. POP MART, founded in 2010, is a famous design and toy brand known worldwide for its collectible and imaginative toys.

2. POP MART works with artists and collaborates with major media companies (such as Disney) to produce high-quality and unique toys and figures, accessible to customers in novel ways, such as in robotic vending machines, called “Roboshops”, as well as small cardboard packages with mystery collectibles, called “blind boxes” (“POP MART Products”).

3. The POP MART Products are sold globally through Plaintiffs’ e-commerce website, www.popmart.com, through the POP MART app, in over 500 POP MART retail stores and more than 2,500 POP MART Roboshops, in over 30 countries and regions.

¹ Where a defined term is referenced herein and not defined herein, the defined term should be understood as it is defined in the Glossary.

4. In September 2023, POP MART opened a theme park called Pop Land in Beijing, China.

5. One of POP MART's most famous lines of toys are the LABUBU Products, elf-like characters from POP MART's collectible series, "THE MONSTERS", created by Hong Kong-born illustrator Kasing Lung. LABUBU Products are described as "elvish" characters with "mischievous" looks, who may look scary but mean well.

6. LABUBU Products come in a variety of shapes, sizes, colors and styles, such as keychains, plush dolls and accessories. They typically retail for between $14.99 - $99.99. However, collectibles and other rare figures may be sold for more, such as the "Mega" LABUBU, which retails for $959.90.

7. Recently LABUBU Products have become viral, sending consumers in a frenzy to purchase them before they are sold out. There have been more than 2 million #LABUBU posts on TikTok alone in the last two years and celebrities such as Rihanna, Cher, and Kim Kardashian have posted images on Instagram featuring LABUBU Products.

8. LABUBU Products have also been featured in many news outlets throughout the United States and globally, such as The New York Times, BBC, Vogue and Forbes.

9. Due to POP MART'S success, in 2024, its revenue more than doubled to $1.8 billion.

10. While Plaintiffs have gained significant common law trademark and other rights in their LABUBU Products through use, advertising and promotion, Plaintiffs have also protected their valuable rights by filing for and/or obtaining federal U.S. trademark registrations.

11. For example, Plaintiff POP MART (Singapore) Holding Pte. Ltd. and Plaintiff Beijing POP MART Cultural & Creative Co., Ltd. are the owners of the LABUBU Registrations for the LABUBU Marks (i.e., U.S. Trademark Registration Nos.: 6,592,820 for “

” for a variety of goods in Class 28; 7,839,156 for “

” for a variety of goods in Class 28; and 7,839,144 for “LABUBU” for a variety of goods in Class 28). Plaintiff POP MART (Singapore) Holding Pte. Ltd. is also the owner of the LABUBU Application for the LABUBU Marks (i.e., U.S. Trademark Application Serial No. 79/402,363 for “POP MART” for a variety of goods in Classes 14 and 25)

12. The LABUBU Marks are currently in use in commerce in connection with the LABUBU Products.

13. In addition, Plaintiffs are also the owner of a registered copyrights in and related to the LABUBU Products.

14. For example, Plaintiff Beijing POP MART Cultural & Creative Co., Ltd. owns the LABUBU Works, and the U.S. copyright registrations covering the same, which are listed as Exhibit D to the Complaint.

15. Defendants are manufacturing, importing, exporting, advertising, marketing, promoting, distributing, displaying, and/or offering for sale Counterfeit Products through Defendants’ User Accounts and Merchant Storefronts with Alibaba and/or AliExpress (see Schedule A for links to Defendants’ Merchant Storefronts and Infringing Listings).

16. Defendants are not, nor have they ever been, authorized distributors or licensees of the LABUBU Products. Neither Plaintiffs, nor any of Plaintiffs’ authorized agents, have consented to Defendants’ use of the LABUBU Marks and/or the LABUBU Works, nor have Plaintiffs consented to Defendants’ use of marks and/or artwork that are confusingly and/or substantially similar to, identical to and constitute a counterfeiting or infringement of the LABUBU Marks and/or LABUBU Works.

17. Plaintiffs are likely to prevail on their Lanham Act, Copyright Act and related common law claims at trial.

18. As a result of Defendants' infringements, Plaintiffs, as well as consumers, are likely to suffer immediate and irreparable losses, damages and injuries before Defendants can be heard in opposition, unless Plaintiffs' Application for ex parte relief is granted:

- a. Defendants have offered for sale and sold substandard Counterfeit Products in the United States that infringe the LABUBU Marks and/or LABUBU Works;
- b. Plaintiffs have well-founded fears that more Counterfeit Products will appear in the marketplace; that consumers may be misled, confused and disappointed by the quality of these Counterfeit Products, resulting in injury to Plaintiffs' reputation and goodwill; and that Plaintiffs may suffer loss of sales for the LABUBU Products; and
- c. Plaintiffs have well-founded fears that if they proceed on notice to Defendants on this Application, Defendants will: (i) secret, conceal, destroy, alter, sell-off, transfer or otherwise dispose of or deal with Counterfeit Products or other goods that infringe the LABUBU Marks and/or LABUBU Works, the means of obtaining or manufacturing such Counterfeit Products, and records relating thereto that are in their possession or under their control, (ii) inform their suppliers and others of Plaintiffs' claims with the result being that those suppliers and others may also secret, conceal, sell-off or otherwise dispose of Counterfeit Products or other goods infringing the LABUBU Marks and/or LABUBU Works, the means of obtaining or manufacturing such Counterfeit Products, and records relating thereto that are in their possession or under their control, (iii) secret, conceal, transfer or otherwise dispose of their ill-gotten proceeds from its sales of Counterfeit Products or other goods infringing the LABUBU Marks and/or LABUBU Works and records relating thereto that are in their possession or under their control and/or (iv) open new User Accounts and Merchant Storefronts under new or different names and continue to offer for sale and sell Counterfeit Products with little to no consequence.

19. The balance of potential harm to Defendants of being prevented from continuing to profit from their illegal and infringing activities if a temporary restraining order is issued is far outweighed by the potential harm to Plaintiffs, their business, the goodwill and reputation built up in and associated with the LABUBU Marks and/or LABUBU Works and to their reputations if a temporary restraining order is not issued.

20. Public interest favors issuance of the temporary restraining order in order to protect Plaintiffs' interests in and to their LABUBU Marks and/or LABUBU Works, and to protect the public from being deceived and defrauded by Defendants' passing off of their substandard Counterfeit Products as LABUBU Products.

21. Plaintiffs have not publicized their request for a temporary restraining order in any way.

22. Service on Defendants via electronic means is reasonably calculated to result in proper notice to Defendants.

23. If Defendants are given notice of the Application, they are likely to secret, conceal, transfer or otherwise dispose of their ill-gotten proceeds from their sales of Counterfeit Products or other goods infringing the LABUBU Marks and/or LABUBU Works. Therefore, good cause exists for granting Plaintiffs' request for an asset restraining order. It typically takes the Financial Institutions a minimum of five (5) days after service of the Order to locate, attach and freeze Defendants' Assets and/or Defendants' Financial Accounts and it is anticipated that it will take the Third Party Service Providers a minimum of five (5) days to freeze Defendants' Merchant Storefronts. As such, the Court allows enough time for Plaintiffs to serve the Financial Institutions and Third Party Service Providers with this Order, and for the Financial Institutions and Third Party Service Providers to comply with the Paragraphs I(B)(1) and I(C)(1) of this Order, respectively, before requiring service on Defendants.

24. Similarly, if Defendants are given notice of the Application, they are likely to destroy, move, hide or otherwise make inaccessible to Plaintiffs the records and documents relating to Defendants' manufacturing, importing, exporting, advertising, marketing, promoting, distributing, displaying, offering for sale and/or sale of Counterfeit Products. Therefore, Plaintiffs have good cause to be granted expedited discovery.
